C. WILLIAM EMORY AWARD

Awarded to the graduating Executive MBA student who, in the opinion of the faculty and administration, best exemplifies the qualities of scholarship, character, and leadership and enjoys the respect, admiration, and affection of his or her classmates. This award is named in honor of Bill Emory, who began his Olin Business School tenure as a marketing faculty member in 1955 and cofounded Olin's EMBA Program in 1982. He and his wife, Jean, were known for their generosity and passion for supporting the global Olin family, Washington University in St. Louis, and the community at large.

To be presented during the ceremony

REID TEACHING AWARDS

A longtime benefactor of Olin Business School, James W. Reid, BSBA '28, with his wife, Marcile, established the Reid Teaching Awards in 1994 to recognize teaching excellence. The impact of the Reids' benevolence and commitment to Olin will continue to be felt by generations of students, faculty, alumni, and friends. The Reid Teaching Awards are presented by Olin's graduating class to the professors whose enthusiasm and exceptional teaching most inspire, energize, and transform our students..
